Inspire and be inspired by this Cincinnati Black artist. Cincinnati Black artist, Art By Autumn M. believes life, like art, can be fluid, full of beautiful moments and experiences. Then what can seem like a perfect canvas can be invaded by change, and challenges or that not so fortunate bump in the road. However, no matter what the situation we can choose happiness, beauty, and strength to live on. This is what art is for me. It comes in many forms, mediums and many viewpoints, but all beautiful in their own right. This collection is one of my forms of expression for the journey that is my life. Full of color and vibrancy as well as those bumps that have challenged and inspired me to grow. My journey has taken me from triumphs to trials and now the road of courage, victory and unshakable faith in love, and the life we create is a work of art in itself. Join me on my journey and hopefully, you will find something that will inspire you along yours. From handpainted original canvasses, art classes to art inspired products I hope you will find something that speaks to you. If you are local to Cincinnati, Ohio or find yourself in the Cincinnati Ohio area sign up for my newsletter to keep updated on what shows I will be at to see my work in person.
