His father was a skilled mechanic having retired from the Volkswagen Dealership in the Walnut Hills Community. His Dad taught him many trade secrets from age fifteen. Later, as a young adult, James worked many years for Just Saab and became very close with their owners. He attributes his love of the trade to his father of course, and Dave the Just Saab owner, who he worked under for more than eighteen years. James comes from a large and close-knit family. The family of eight children lost their parents at a young age, and the eldest brother down to the youngest are all talented when it comes to quality skilled craftsmen. The Burns' family also runs an auto body shop and has for the past thirty years. James and Rita Burns additionally are the blessed owners of the Community Outreach Program, Jewell's Academy of Music and Arts under the leadership of Pastor Peterson Mingo, Christ Temple Church in the beautiful Evanston Community. We welcome you to our business, and we pride ourselves in caring for your home because we realize that… Home is where your heart is!
