Tunatawala LLC is based out of Winchester, KY and we specialize in real estate investing. We are focused on doing single family residential and multi family wholesaling as well as large commercial apartment building deals but our primary focus is on teaching others how to get a foot into the door of real estate investing without charging anyone anything and showing them how to do this without using any money. We take great pride in that mission. Anything that s free is gonna require a lot of time and effort but the reward of mastering these skills are immense. What do you have to lose?
